

Biography

Clive Tilbrook General Manager, Business Development Asia Software AG

In his current position as General Manager Business Development– Asia for Software AG, Clive plays a key role in developing and implementing the company's business development strategies across Asia. He is also responsible for positioning Software AG as the Founding Member of XMLOne, the region's first XML User Group. Currently, he sits on the XML Working Group, a sub-committee of the National IT Standards Committee. Prior to rising to his current position at Software AG, Clive was holding management positions in Product Marketing, Marketing and Channels. He was also Managing Director for the company's Singapore office. He had presented at numerous industry's seminars and conferences throughout the region.

Software AG

Software AG, headquartered in Darmstadt, Germany, provides a full range of products and services to deliver a serviceoriented architecture (SOA) IT infrastructure, based on over thirtyfive years experience in highperformance databases, application development tools and integration technologies. Its technology offers process driven integration through legacy modernization and realtime single views of strategic business information. Software AG helps its customers to achieve a competitive advantage through flexible and adaptive business processes based on fast and easy integration of existing IT assets. It supports the missioncritical systems of over 3,000 customers globally. Software AG is represented in around 70 countries with more than 2,700 employees. It is listed on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange (TecDAX, ISIN DE 0003304002 / SOW). In 2005, Software AG posted €438 million in total revenue.