

Kumar Ramasamy, aged 35 is the Chief Technology Officer of Pentamaster IT (M) Bhd. He has more than 10 years experience in the IT/automation industry. He joined the Pentamaster Group in 1995 and was the Vision Engineer under PTSB, developing image analysis system. In 1997, he was promoted to Vision R&D Section Manager and was responsible for R&D efforts in image analysis field involving both hardware and software. In 1998, he was promoted to Research & Business Development Manager responsible for both research initiatives developed internally as well customer driven initiative. In 1999, he was given the task as the Business and Internal Development Manager, responsible for customer requirement analysis as well as IT Operations. In 2001, he was given task as MIS Manager, responsible for all internal IT operations and software development. In 2003, he was promoted to Chief Technical Officer of PITB. He is responsible for all PITB activities involving sales/marketing, R&D, technology review, NPI and customer support/services. He was instrumental in setting up one of Malaysia RFID Technology Center in Penang. He is currently involved into various types of RFID technology, its implementation, implications and uses to various industries.